

United States Navy Biography

LT JESSICA L. WILLIAMS Instructor, United States Naval Academy

LT Jessica Williams is from Tinley Park, IL. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science and Master of Science in Mechanical Engineering from Purdue University Indianapolis in May 2015 and was commissioned through Officer Candidate School (OCS) in Newport, RI in January 2017.

After Civil Engineer Corps Officer School (CECOS) in Port Hueneme, CA, she was assigned to Naval Facilities Engineering Command (NAVFAC) Mid-Atlantic, Public Works Department Pennsylvania where she served as a construction manager until May 2019. LT Williams then went on to be the Production Officer for U.S. Navy Support Facility, Diego Garcia from May 2019 to August 2020.

From September 2020 to July 2022, LT Williams served with Naval Mobile Construction Battalion FIVE, as Alfa Company 1st Platoon Commander, Detail San Clemente Island Platoon Commander, Western Pacific Area Officer, Detail Guam Officer-in-Charge, and Assistant Operations Officer.

LT Williams is currently an instructor in the Weapons, Robotics, and Control Engineering Department at the United States Naval Academy where she teaches Naval Weapon Systems.

She is a registered Professional Engineer in the state of Oregon and is a qualified Seabee Combat Warfare Officer. Additionally, LT Williams is Public Works Level I certified, Contracting Professional certified, and completed Joint Professional Military Education (JPME) I. Personal decorations include the Navy Commendation Medal with gold star and the Navy Achievement Medal.