The Independent Panel is committed to learning from stakeholders and invites submissions from around the world on all aspects in relation to the Panel's Program of Work. Our aim is to identify evidence-based clear and implementable solutions, in order for the world to achieve the highest possible level of pandemic preparedness and response.

WHO Member States, civil society organisations, researchers, the private sector, and the general public are welcome to submit their contributions here, with a focus on our four main themes and the
