

WHO Pandemic Agreement

Draft resolution proposed by Australia, Brunei Darussalam, Canada, Norway, and Pakistan

The Seventy-seventh World Health Assembly,

(PP1) Recalling decision SSA2(5) (2021), entitled “The World Together: Establishment of an intergovernmental negotiating body to strengthen pandemic prevention, preparedness and response”, which established the Intergovernmental Negotiating Body (INB) to draft and negotiate a WHO convention, agreement or other international instrument on pandemic prevention, preparedness and response, with a view to adoption under Article 19, or under other provisions of the WHO Constitution;

(PP2) Recalling that the INB agreed, at its second session, that the instrument should be legally binding and contain both legally binding as well as non-legally binding elements, and identified that Article 19 of the WHO Constitution is the comprehensive provision under which the instrument should be adopted, without prejudice to also considering, as work progresses, the suitability of Article 21;

(PP3) Expressing appreciation for the work of the INB and its Bureau, and welcoming the report of the INB on the outcome of its work;<sup>1</sup>

(PP4) Recognizing that the INB [achieved significant progress and reached initial agreement on many provisions] [reached convergence on many elements] of the [WHO] Pandemic Agreement, and that further work needs to be done on [some key] remaining [provisions] [elements]; and

(PP5) Reaffirming the full commitment of Member States to take action to prevent, prepare for and respond to pandemics, guided by equity,

(OP)1. DECIDES:

(1) to extend the mandate of the INB, which shall continue its work to finalise the Pandemic Agreement under the same Bureau, and shall submit its final outcome for consideration by a special session of the World Health Assembly;

(↔) I Alt to [extend the INB, allowing for rotation of Bureau members, as appropriate and if agreed within each region, with the mandate to continue its work] / [establish, in accordance with Rule 41 of its Rules of Procedure, an open-ended Intergovernmental
