MOTION TO ENFORCE: What to do with these Court Forms

Here are a few tips for filling out the forms:

- Always use full legal names, not nicknames.
- Type or print neatly.
 - Fillable versions of the forms are available on our website at:
https://www.courts.maine.gov/fees_forms/forms.
- You will file each form with the Court. Before you do that, make copies of your completed forms—one for yourself and one copy for each of the other parties. You will need to find a place to make copies (like a library). The court clerk cannot make copies for you.

STEP ONE: Fill out the Forms

Family Matter Summary Sheet (FM-002)

This form is required for the clerk to start an action. In order to fill out this form you need to enter contact information for yourself and for any other party.

Motion to Enforce (FM-070)

The section at the top of the form is called the "caption." Look at the caption on your original Court Order and copy the court location, docket number and names of Plaintiff and Defendant. (This information stays the same. If you were the defendant before, you are still the defendant, even though you are the one filing the motion to enforce.) If you can't find your original order, you can obtain a copy from the clerk. If you are trying to change the amount of child support only, check that box that reads "Child Support Only" under the words "Motion to Enforce." Please complete pages 1 through 3 as instructed. You must sign page 4 this form in front of a notary public. You can find a notary at a bank, a legal services office, through your town office, or at the court clerk's office.

Social Security Number Disclosure Form (CV-CR-FM-PC-200)

You are required by both State and Federal law to provide your social security number along with your children's social security numbers. This information is collected on the Social Security Number Disclosure form, which will be placed in a confidential envelope in the court file. This form is included in your packet.

Child Support Affidavit (FM-050) (for cases with minor children)

Fill out the "caption" the same way that you did on the complaint form. Fill out the rest of the form to the best of your knowledge. Note that you list last year's earned income and this year's expected earned income separately under #1. Also note that you list other income under #2 and fringe benefits under #3. You may have to look at your records, if you have them, to get financial information. You must sign this form in front of a notary public. After the defendant gets your Complaint, the Court will ask the defendant to fill out the same financial form and send you a copy.

Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255)

This packet contains two copies of this form. You have the choice to allow the opposing party to serve documents on you by email. To do this, you must complete one of the copies of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255) and include that in the packet of forms that you serve on the opposing party. Make sure to also include the second blank copy of this form in the packet of forms that you serve on the opposing party. If the opposing party wants to allow you to serve documents by email, the opposing party must complete the form and send it back to you. Do not file this form with the court.

PLEASE NOTE: Receiving filings by email in your case is completely optional. If you wish to receive paper filings in your case, you do not have to complete this form. However, if you do complete the form, you do not need to file it with the court.

STEP TWO: Serve the Forms

Now you must give copies to the defendant. This is called "serving" the court papers. Court rules say you can do this in one of three ways: (1) You can mail the papers, asking the other party to agree to "service;" (2) you can send the papers by certified mail; or (3) you can pay a sheriff to give the copies to the other party. You must file proof of service with the court.

Service by Mail

Mail or hand-deliver these papers to the other party:

- Copy of Motion to Enforce
- Copy of Child Support Affidavit (for cases with minor children)
- Two copies of Acknowledgment of Receipt of Summons and Complaint (after you have filled in the "caption" on both copies)
- Blank copy of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255)
- Completed copy of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255) (only if you want to agree to email receipt of documents filed by the opposing party in your case)
- Stamped, self-addressed envelope

The Acknowledgment of Receipt form asks the other party to sign it, showing he/she got the papers, and to return the form to you within 20 days. If you get the signed Acknowledgment back within 20 days, go on to Step 3. If not, then you will need to serve the papers another way.

Service by Certified Mail, Restricted Delivery

Take these papers to the post office along with an envelope:

- Copy of Motion to Enforce
- Copy of Child Support Affidavit (for cases with minor children)
- Blank copy of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255)
- Completed copy of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255) (only if you want to agree to email receipt of documents filed by the opposing party in your case)

Tell the postal clerk that you want to send the papers by certified mail. Make sure you ask for a "Return Receipt" and "Restricted Delivery." This costs more and involves a few extra steps. Get forms and help from your post office. File with the court clerk the green card you get back from the post office, to prove that the other party got the papers.

Service by Sheriff

Mail or take to your county sheriff's office:

- The original and one copy of the Motion to Enforce

ADA Notice: The Maine Judicial Branch complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If you need a reasonable accommodation contact the Court Access Coordinator, accessibility@courts.maine.gov, or a court clerk.

Language Services: For language assistance and interpreters, contact a court clerk or interpreters@courts.maine.gov.

MAINE JUDICIAL BRANCH

- Copy of Child Support Affidavit (for cases with minor children)
- Blank copy of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255)
- Completed copy of the Notice Regarding Electronic Service (CR-CV-FM-255) (only if you want to agree to email receipt of documents filed by the opposing party in your case)

In a letter, or in person, ask the sheriff's office to serve the papers on the other party. Give the other party's home address. If you think the other party will be hard to find at home, give the other party's work address. The deputy who "serves" the papers will complete page two of the Summons and return the original to you. There is a charge for this service - please contact the sheriff's office for the county where the other party lives for information on costs of service. The deputy who "serves" the papers will complete page 5 of the motion and return the original to you.

STEP THREE: File the Forms

Within 20 days after serving the other party, file these forms with the court:

- Summary Sheet
- Motion
- SSN Disclosure Form
- Child Support Affidavit
- Summons (included in the motion on page 5) (REQUIRED regardless of how service was completed, and should be filed with deputy's signature if you used sheriff's service)
- Acknowledgment of Receipt (if you used service by mail)
- Green card you got back from the post office (if you used certified mail for service)

Please note: you must file at least one type of proof of service for each other party to the case.

The Court charges a fee to file your papers. Later you may be charged a mediation fee (shared by the parties). If you cannot afford the court fees, you may ask the clerk for an Application to Proceed Without Payment of Fees and an Affidavit. Then file the forms with the clerk along with your other papers. A judge will review your financial information and decide whether you qualify for a "fee waiver." If the waiver is denied, you must pay the filing fee within 7 days. If the waiver is granted, you will not have to pay some or all of the court fees.

WHAT IS NEXT?

Once the court receives a complete filing, the clerk will schedule the first court event with a family law magistrate (for cases with children) or judge (for cases without children). For more information on this and the rest of the court process, please visit the Family and Children page at the Maine Judicial Branch website listed below or read "A Guide to Family Separation in Maine" that is provided to every party at the start of a case.

Forms Required After Initial Filing

Whenever you file with the court any of these forms, or any other document, you must send a copy to the opposing party.

Child Support Worksheet (FM-040) and, if applicable, Supplemental Worksheet (FM-040-A)

Parties must complete a Child Support Worksheet (FM-040) and file it with the Court no later than 3 days prior to a court hearing, whether contested or uncontested. It is recommended that a party file a Child Support Worksheet with the Child Support Affidavit at the time of filing. There are instructions on the worksheet for how to complete it. Parties who share substantially equal care of the minor child(ren) as defined in 19-A M.R.S. § 2006(5)(D-1) must also complete and file a Supplemental Worksheet (FM-040-A) at the same time they file a Child Support Worksheet.

Federal Affidavit (FM-052)

If the responding party has not entered an appearance or appeared in court by the time of the final hearing, the filing party must file a Federal Affidavit (FM-052) stating under oath that the responding party is not serving in the military or an affidavit signed by responding party waiving rights conferred by the Service Members Civil Relief Act.

HELPFUL RESOURCES

A Guide to Family Separation in Maine: This guide will help you better understand the court process in family law cases such as divorce and parental rights and responsibilities (PR&R) cases. PR&R cases involve parties who have a child but are not married. You can get a copy of this guide at the court or access it online www.courts.maine.gov.

Maine Judicial Branch website: The Families and Children page of the website includes information on many different types of family cases. Please visit that page for information on what to expect from the court process and issues that may come up in your case.

Mediation: A mediator may be able to help you and the other party or parties reach an agreement on issues relating to your case. Mediation can be arranged through the court or a private mediator.

Parent education: A parent education program specifically designed for divorcing or separating parents may help you focus on the needs of your children. The court may order you to attend one of these programs.

Child Support Table: These guidelines, by law, are issued by DHHS and are used to help determine child support obligations according to income. This table is available online at: http://www.courts.maine.gov/fees_forms/forms/ or from any District Court clerk's office.

For more information about these resources, speak with the court clerk or visit the Maine Judicial Branch website at: www.courts.maine.gov.

ADA Notice: The Maine Judicial Branch complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If you need a reasonable accommodation contact the Court Access Coordinator, accessibility@courts.maine.gov, or a court clerk.

Language Services: For language assistance and interpreters, contact a court clerk or interpreters@courts.maine.gov.

IMPORTANT WARNING TO RESPONDING PARTY

If you oppose this motion, you may file with the court a response with any supporting affidavits or other documents no later than 21 days after you have been served with this motion. In addition, you must also send a copy of all filings to all other parties or their attorneys, if any.

NOTICE TO BOTH PARTIES

If this motion involves minor children, you are required to attend a case management conference at the court. Within two weeks after the moving party files with the Court proof of service of the motion to modify and child support affidavit, the Court will notify you of the date and time of the conference. The notice will be sent by regular mail.

You have the right to appear and be heard at all court events (trial, hearing, conference, mediation, etc.). If you fail to appear at any or all court events without good cause, action may be taken in your case even though you are not there. This means that the Court may, in your absence, enter an interim (temporary) order, or hold a final hearing and enter a final order or judgment regarding any or all of the issues in your case, including but not limited to, paternity or parentage, parental rights and responsibilities for children (decision-making, residence, contact, etc.), child support, spousal support (alimony), attorney fees, and distribution of marital and non-marital property (debt, real estate, vehicles, personal property, pension and retirement accounts, etc.). The Court also has the option to dismiss any pleading that you have filed if you do not appear in Court. It is your own responsibility to be sure that the Court has your correct mailing address. Any change of address must be in writing and delivered to the Clerk's office by hand or regular mail.

By signing, dating and returning this form, I state that I received a copy of the Summons and Complaint, the Post-Judgment Motion, or Notice of Registration of Foreign Judgment with accompanying documents and that I understand the applicable statements below.

AS TO CIVIL CASES, I understand that if I do not file an answer to the Complaint or an objection to the Motion within the time limits established by statute or court rule and appear at all court conferences and hearings, then a judgment may be entered against me in my absence, and Plaintiff or the moving party may request that other orders be entered against me.

AS TO INTITIAL FAMILY MATTERS (DIVORCE, PARENTAL RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES, PARENTAGE, GRANDPARENTS' VISITATION RIGHTS, JUDICIAL SEPARATION, ANNULMENT, AND TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS UNDER 19-A M.R.S. § 1658) AND POST-JUDGMENT MOTIONS ARISING FROM THOSE ACTIONS, I understand that:

- If I was served with a complaint or petition, I may file an answer, counterclaim, or response (forms FM-186, FM-187, FM-229, or FM-225 are available for this at the clerk's office or at www.courts.maine.gov) within 21 days of being served. If I am filing response to a petition for grandparent visitation rights or a complaint for de facto parentage, I must file an affidavit with my response;

MAINE JUDICIAL BRANCH

- If I was served with a post-judgment motion, I understand that I may file a cross-motion or objection within 21 days of being served, except that I may file a response to a motion to modify only child support within 30 days after being served;
- If I do not want to file an answer, counterclaim, response, cross-motion, or objection, but I do want to be heard on issues applicable to my case including parental rights and responsibilities, child support, spousal support, attorney fees, and the division of marital and non-marital property, I must (1) appear at all court conferences and hearings, and (2) file an Entry of Appearance (form FM-020) if I am not represented by an attorney; and
- If I do not enter an appearance or appear at court, judgment may be entered against me in my absence, and the plaintiff or petitioner may request that other orders be entered against me.

AS TO NOTICES OF REGISTRATION OF FOREIGN JUDGMENT, I have read the Notice of Registration (form CV-FM-110) and understand that if I want to contest the validity of the registered foreign judgment, I must request a hearing within the time specified on the Notice of Registration using the Request for Hearing Form (form CV-FM-203). I understand that if I do not contest the validity or enforcement of the registered foreign judgment, the court will confirm and enforce the judgment, including any alleged arrearages, and I will not be able to contest the judgment later.

CALCULATING "AMOUNT FROM TABLE" FOR LINE 9 OF THE WORKSHEET

1. Look at the Child Support Table.
2. Circle the amount in the Table under "Parents' Combined Annual Income" that is closest to the "Combined Adjusted Gross Income" on Line 7c of the Worksheet.
3. In the "Number of Children" column, circle the TOTAL number of children in this case.
Draw a line from the circled number of children down the column until it meets the circle you drew for parents' yearly combined income. Circle the number and write the number you circled in the space after "amount from table" on Line 9b of the Worksheet.
4. For example, if you have two children and a combined adjusted gross income of $18,000, use the column for 2 children. The "Parents' Combined Annual Income" and the "Number of Children" lines should meet at $54.
Using this example, you would write the following on the Worksheet:
9. Total number of children 2 multiplied by amount from table $ 54 = $ 108 .

NON-PRIMARY CARE PROVIDERS WITH VERY LOW INCOMES

When the non-primary care provider's income is very low, different rules for calculating child support apply. If the annual gross income of the non-primary care provider is less than the federal poverty guidelines, the non-primary care provider's weekly parental support obligation may not exceed 10% of the non-primary care provider's weekly gross income, regardless of the amount of the parties' combined annual gross income. No additional amounts such as health insurance, child care, or extraordinary medical expenses should be added to this total. Please note this amount is calculated assuming a household of one person.

If the non-primary care provider's annual gross income, without adjustments, is in the self-support reserve for the total number of children for whom support is being determined, the amount listed in the self-support reserve multiplied by the number of children is the non-primary care provider's basic support obligation for the children, regardless of the parties' combined annual gross income. The non-primary care provider's proportional share of childcare, health insurance premiums, and extraordinary medical expenses is added to this basic support obligation. This paragraph does not apply if its application would result in a greater support obligation than a support obligation determined without application of this paragraph.

If the non-primary care provider's income falls in the self-support reserve (the shaded area of the Child Support Table), check the box in the non-primary care provider column next to "self-support reserve" on the child support worksheet. If the non-primary care provider's income is lower than all income amounts listed in the Child Support Table, check the box next to "below poverty level" on the child support worksheet.

CALCULATING AMOUNT FOR LINE 6 OF THE WORKSHEET (OTHER CHILDREN LIVING WITH NON-PRIMARY CARE PROVIDER)

If the non-primary care provider has a legal obligation to support other children living in his/her home, the non-primary care provider is entitled to an adjustment. The amount of the adjustment is written on line 6. To determine the adjustment to be entered on Line 6, follow the steps in paragraphs 1, 2, 3, and 4, with some changes. In step 2, circle the amount in the Table under "Parents' Combined Adjusted Gross Income" that is closest to the non-primary care provider's gross income at Line 5. Do not circle the combined adjusted gross income of both parties in this case. In step 3, in the "Number of Children" column, circle the total number of other children living with the non-primary care provider that the non-primary care provider has a legal obligation to support. Do not circle the total number of children in this case.

Warning: If there is an existing child support order for the children in this case, the adjustment may not apply.

ADA Notice: The Maine Judicial Branch complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). If you need a reasonable accommodation contact the Court Access Coordinator, accessibility@courts.maine.gov, or a court clerk.

Language Services: For language assistance and interpreters, contact a court clerk or interpreters@courts.maine.gov.

CALCULATING THE NON-PRIMARY CARE PROVIDER ADJUSTMENT FOR SECTION 14b OF THE WORKSHEET

If the non-primary care provider pays directly out of pocket the cost of the child(ren)'s health insurance, child care for children under the age of 12 (or otherwise eligible), and/or extraordinary medical expenses, that parent's weekly support obligation must be adjusted. The amount of the adjustment is the cost of the health insurance for the children (line 10), the cost of child care for the child(ren) under the age of 12 (or otherwise eligible) (line 11), and the cost of extraordinary medical expenses for the child(ren) (line 12). Subtract lines 10, 11, and 12 from the Non-Primary Care Provider's support obligation to determine the amount that must be paid as support.

If the primary care provider pays the cost of the children's health insurance, child care for children under the age of 12 (or otherwise eligible), or extraordinary medical expenses, or if neither parent pays for health insurance, child care for children under the age of 12 (or otherwise eligible), or extraordinary medical expenses, enter 0 on the line next to "Non-Primary Care Provider Adjustment."

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

Your family case has been scheduled for a case management conference. Trial counsel and parties are required to attend unless:

- A Certificate in Lieu of Conference (form FM-054) is filed with the court in advance of the conference date and the court waives the conference. This form, which can be found on the Judicial Branch's website at: http://www.courts.maine.gov/fees_forms/forms or from any Maine District Court clerk's office may only be filed when the parties agree on interim arrangements for the children;
- The Case Management Conference is deferred in accordance with M.R. Civ. P. 110A(b)(3)(A)(ii); or
- The parties agree on a modification of an existing judgment or order and file the appropriate paperwork with the court in advance of the conference date.

PLEASE NOTE: You may be ordered to attend mediation. Please come to the case management conference prepared to pay your portion of the mediation fee.

The following matters will be discussed at the case management conference, and an order may be entered at that time, or at a subsequent hearing, even if a motion for interim relief has not been filed:

1. Interim arrangements for the children, including residence, parent/child contact, health insurance and child support; interim responsibility for payment of periodic debts; and interim spousal support (if applicable). You must file form FM-050, Child Support Affidavit. It is due no later than 3 days prior to the case management conference;
2. Issues in dispute;
3. Deadlines for moving the case to resolution, exchange of information (discovery), and mediation;
4. Payment of fees, including any court mediation fee and attorney fees;
5. Date and time of the next court event. If one party is defaulted or if the case involves the establishment or enforcement of a child support obligation, a brief hearing may take place on the day of the case management conference;
6. Referral to a judge. When parental rights and responsibilities are in dispute, the parties may exercise their right to have a judge determine interim parental rights and responsibilities. To do this, a party must file a written request with the court clerk before or at the time of the case management conference under M.R. Civ. P. 110A(b)(4)(A);
7. Other matters pertinent to the case including, but not limited to, attendance at a parent education program; genetic testing; a job search; the appointment of a guardian ad litem; and/or a psychological evaluation.

The Magistrate will enter a Case Management Order following the case management conference that will determine the course of the proceedings and may enter other orders, such as an interim order, or an order enforcing a child support obligation.

WARNING TO PARTIES: If you are the responding party and wish to object to the complaint or motion, a response must be filed within the time limits established by statute or court rule. Do not wait until the time of the case management conference to state your objections.

You have the right to appear and be heard at all court events (trial, hearing, conference, mediation). If you fail to appear at any or all court events without good cause, action may be taken on your case even though you are not there. This means that the Court may, in your absence, enter an interim/temporary order OR hold a final hearing and enter a final default order or judgment regarding any or all of the issues in your case, including but not limited to paternity or parentage, parental rights and responsibilities for children (custody, residence, visitation, etc.), child support, name change, spousal support/alimony, attorney fees, and distribution of marital and non-marital property (debt, real estate, vehicles, pension and retirement accounts, etc.). The Court also may dismiss any pleading that you have filed if you do not show up.
