

RULE 100A. FORM OF ACTION

An action under these Family Division Rules shall be known as a Family Division action, docketed as a Family Matter (FM).

Advisory Notes June 2008

Rule 100A follows Rule 2 but provides that an action under this rule shall be known as a “Family Division action” rather than a “civil action.” The docketing designations of Family Division cases will not change from present practice.