

David Duke

I HAVE NEVER LIVED IN AMERICA

FREEDOM NOW!

YES!

NO!

MA

About the Author

David Dukes was born in Madison, Florida. He received the Florida NAACP State Conference of Branches, Mary Groom Award, in 1964, for being the most active youth in the civil rights struggle in Florida. He is the former president of the Madison County, Florida, NAACP Youth Council, and a former Task Force worker for the Congress on Racial Equality (CORE). He moved to Miami, Florida, and received his A.A. degree from Miami-Dade Junior College—South. He is listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges, 1967-1968; he received the Scholarship, Education, and Defense Fund for Racial Equality; attended the University of Miami at Coral Gables, Florida; and received his B.A. degree from Florida International University, Miami, Florida. I Have Never Lived in America is his first book.

Vantage Press, Inc.
516 West 34th St., New York, N.Y. 10001

