Dear Diane:

Enclosed is a carbon of the little tribute I've written to the Bevel family, to be used in our January issue of the Patriot along with a picture of you and the baby, as a sort of New Year's feature.

(Tell Bevel that the fact that he is not included in the picture does not mean that we do not think he is also beautiful---but he just was not in the photograph I have. Besides, I've used his picture previously in the Patriot.)

If you find anything objectionable in the enclosed story, or you want me to make any changes, please let me know by this Saturday, Jan. 12, when I'll be checking proofs and can make changes. If you don't have time to get a letter to me by then, call me collect if you want changes made.

It was good to get a glimpse of you in Nashville. Be sure to let me know right away any new developments on your case---or anything else on which we can be helpful short of moving to Mississippi (which we may still consider doing one of these days).

Much love,

Anne Braden

If you would like some extra copies of this issue of the Patriot please let me know how many and we'll send them free of charge.

Let me know if I still do not have the spelling of the baby's name right. I don't know why that buffalo, re-
I am unable to remember it correctly.
