Dear Amzie,

Yesterday Rev. McCrackin, Ernest Bromley and I got together and discussed what Operation Freedom might do to help you in regard to your debt with the Federal Housing Administration. It turned out that we are still not too clear on the issues involved. We don't see why the FHA doesn't take the air conditioning unit if you can't make the payments on it.

Unless they actually bring a suit against you, there is little Operation Freedom can probably do. You realize of course that Operation Freedom has tried to help those people who have been subjected to reprisals because of their activity in the civil rights movement, and it seems as though the FHA is not discriminating against you, according to what you told me the letter from The Civil Rights Commission stated.

We do have some further questions and would appreciate it very much if you would write to us. With your present income are you completely unable to make the $25 a month payments? Are you the only person responsible for this debt now? Do you think it is likely that a suit will be brought against you? Has the FHA said anything more about a suit?

We shall be looking forward to hearing from you about this. Take care of yourself and have a nice holiday.

Sincerely,

Jack McKart
