Dear Mr. Sayer:

I received your check and turned it over to the finance person. You should receive a receipt and a form letter independently, but I wanted to say thanks personally as well. I know there are very few who keep plugging away in our support as you and your wife do.

Mrs. Sayer is here in the state. I expect I'll get a chance to talk to her; I didn't last time.

There's a small crisis brewing here in the office. I'm really not far enough away from it to discuss it, or to talk about something else. So I'll close. Thanks again,

Yours truly,

Lois Chaffee
