

JUST A NOTE
TO LET YOU KNOW,
.....IM TOO DRUNK
TO WRITE!

cheers!

dearest alecia,

hellooooooooo. i figure that the cheers is an appropriate gesture to a fellow state streeteerite. well, one more leftist has made it to the west coast. and i sure do love this sunshine (for the benefit of all you winter lovers). and these beautiful mountains. i guess i'm a nut ~~for~~ the geography of the coast from san diego to seattle.

i had real good luck in coming to los angeles. i made it in just two days. left chicago on a wednesday afternoon and arrived friday afternoon (Nov. 7) at four-thirty downtown los angeles.

say, have you contacted Eugene Feldman at chicago? he has some real good stuff dealing with negro history.

if this letter seems skippy, it is. i have to make this letter short because i must get up early for work (6 am), this early because of no car for work.

wish i was in the rat tonight. i don't miss the weather your having, but their are certain things which i miss about madaison. i miss the ~~bat~~, not too many campuses here that i know of have the atmosphere of the rat. i kinda miss the pancake house and state street. i haven't had the chance to see much of ucla or usc to see if they have a university like area.

have to close for now. write when the chance comes.

sincerely from a swingin'
leftist!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
