

Congress Supporting Program Programme complémentaire du Congrès Rahmenprogramm

SOCIAL PROGRAM

SP-1 NATIONAL RECEPTION Participants: 1,700
2030-2300 Mon, August 3 Included in Registration

Delicious hors d'oeuvres and beverages were enjoyed at the Smithsonian - National Air and Space Museum in the midst of exhibits of America's flight and space accomplishments. Three special showings of a most exciting IMAX film were viewed.

SP-2 ASPRS HOST RECEPTION Participants: 1850
1930-2130 Tue, August 4 Included in Registration

The American Society for Photogrammetry and Remote Sensing in cooperation with the ACSM and RT'92 invited ISPRS attendees to join with their national meeting participants for an evening of conversation, interaction and good food at the Ramada Hotel.

SP-3 POTOMAC RIVER CRUISE Participants: 257
1730-2230 Thu, August 6 $50 per person

The "Spirit of Washington," a sleek air conditioned ship, cruised the Potomac River while the captain narrated points of interest. Participants also enjoyed a complete buffet dinner followed by an all-American "Salute to Broadway" show.

SP-4 EVENING CITY TOUR Participants: 82
2000 - 2200 $20 per person

A champagne tour by open air trolley winding through the streets and neighborhoods of Washington with views of historic and significant buildings and monuments.

SP-5 CABARET EVENING Participants: 115
1730-2230 Fri, August 7 $40 per person

A musical performance of "Dames at Sea" was enjoyed at the Lazy Susan dinner theatre in Virginia.

SP-6 GEORGETOWN LITES Participants: 49
1730-2030 Fri, August 7 $25 per person

Participants enjoyed the essence of this historical district along with shopping, 'rounding and happy hour'. The evening concluded with a luxury coach tour of Washington.

SP-7 PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL GAME Participants: 96
1800-2300 Fri, August 7 $25 per person

Participants watched the Baltimore Orioles play the Cleveland Indians at America's newest baseball stadium in Baltimore, Maryland.

SP-8 EXHIBITORS' RECEPTION Participants: 4,600
1800-2030 Mon, August 10 Included in Registration

Participants visited with host companies in the spacious Exhibition Hall at the Convention Center. The beverages and bountiful hors d'oeuvres served reflected regional flavors of American cuisine while Brook Teglers' Hot Jazz provided musical entertainment.

SP-9 A GLIMPSE OF AMERICANA Participants: 750
1400-2300 Tue, August 11 $25 per person

Attendees shared an afternoon and evening of fun and relaxation at the Bay Ridge Inn located on 33 acres with beach, pool and facilities nestled on the shore of the beautiful Chesapeake Bay near historic Annapolis. Some opted for the mid-afternoon tour of historic Annapolis and the US Naval Academy prior to going on to Bay Ridge for the evening festivities. Others chose to go directly to Bay Ridge where they enjoyed the afternoon in a wide variety of social activities - on the beach, in the pool, playing volley ball, watching entertainers, listening to the jazz band, eating and drinking, exploring and even cracking Maryland crabs with some of the locals. The evening program included a buffet dinner, fife and drum entertainment and dancing to a live swing band.

SP-10 ISPRS BANQUET Participants: 450
 1800-2230 Wed, August 12 $55 per person

The evening began with cocktails and a grand dinner followed by an introduction to the new Council and Commission Presidents. The festivities which highlighted this gala event included "The Fairfax Jubilaires" barber shop singers and the entertaining "Three on a String".

SP-11 THEATRE NIGHT Participants: 82
 1900-2230 Thu, August 13 $45 per person

The John F. Kennedy Center for Performing Arts presented "1600 Pennsylvania Avenue," by Alan Jay Lerner and Leonard Bernstein in the Opera House.

ACCOMPANYING PERSONS PROGRAM

AP-1 WELCOME LUNCHEON Participants: 212
 Mon, 3 August 1230-1500 Included in registration

A short presentation introduced participants to the events and activities planned. A luncheon and opportunity to get acquainted was provided for accompanying persons.

AP-2 CITY TROLLEY TOUR Participants: 80
 Tue, 4 August 0900-1100 $15.00 per person

A trolley trip specially designed for us showed the best of Washington. The narrated tour covered all important points of interest.

AP-3 HILLWOOD Participants: 38
 Tue, 4 August 1330-1630 $23 per person

A visit to the former home of Post Cereal heiress, Marjorie Merriweather Post provided a unique opportunity to view her vast opulent collection of the 18th and 19th century Russian and French decorative art.

AP-4 VIRGINIA COUNTRYSIDE & LURAY CAVERNS Participants: 77
 Wed, 5 August 0900-1700 $47 per person

A trip through the beautiful countryside of Virginia and on to the Blue Ridge Mountains. Participants visited the magnificent Luray Caverns with underground rooms ranging to 43 meters in height.

AP-5 CITY TROLLEY TOUR Participants: 41
 Wed, 5 August 1400-1600 $15 per person
 See description under item number "AP-2"

AP-6 BREAKFAST and FASHION SHOW Participants: 150
 Thu, 6 August 0830-1200 Included in registration

The Hecht Company, one of Washington's best department stores, hosted "Focus on Fashions for Fall '92" a special showing of the latest fashions.

AP-7 KENNEDY CENTER & STATE DEPARTMENT RECEPTION ROOMS Participants: 45
 Thu, 6 August 1300-1630 $20 per person

The visit included an in-depth tour of the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts and the rare opportunity to visit the beautifully furnished Diplomatic Reception Rooms at the Department of State.

AP-8 GEORGETOWN, DUMBARTON OAKS & C&O CANAL Participants: 65
 Fri, 7 August 0930-1700 $25 per person

Participants visited Dumbarton Oaks which houses an extensive collection of Byzantine and pre-Columbian art and artifacts in its museum. As an added treat was a 90-min. mule-drawn barge ride with period costumed guides giving the history of this 184 mile canal built in 1828.

AP-9 RELIGIOUS SITES OF WASHINGTON Participants: 20
 Mon, 10 August 0830-1215 $23 per person

The tour included a visit to three of Washington's beautiful religious sites - the Islamic Center, the Washington Cathedral, and the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

AP-10 VISITS TO SPECIAL MUSEUMS Participants: 32
 Mon, 10 August 1330-1630 $20 per person

Explorer's Hall at the National Geographic Society Headquarters and the Renwick Gallery of Art were visited.

AP-11 AMERICAN HOME VISITS Participants: 80
 Mon, 10 August 1315-1645 Included in registration
 Typical American homes in suburban Maryland and Virginia were visited for afternoon coffee or tea.

AP-12 EMBASSY ROW Participants: 24
 Tue, 11 August 0900-1230 $20 per person
 Special tours through the Japanese Embassy and the Canadian Embassy were arranged.

AP-13 MOUNT VERNON and ALEXANDRIA Participants: 59
 Wed, 12 August 0900-1600 $25 per person

The mid-Georgian style mansion which was the Mt. Vernon, Virginia home of the first President of the United States, George Washington was visited. A walking tour of Old Town Alexandria was also enjoyed.

AP-14 MONTGOMERY MALL & G STREET FABRICS Participants: 30
Thu, 13 August 0900-1500 $25 per person
 'G Street Fabrics', a vast place filled with "finds" - fabric treasures from all over the world, was visited. Participants then went on to Montgomery Mall, a newly remodeled suburban Maryland shopping center.

AP-15 MARYLAND WINES Participants: 38
Fri, 14 August 0915-1500 $25 per person
 Visits to two wineries in the Maryland countryside were arranged. Tastings included a winery which makes grape wines and one which makes various fruit wines.

MORNING WALK EVENTS
 The Accompanying Persons program offered free walking tours led by Committee volunteers to sites of interest in the vicinity of the Convention Center. Organized events included:

National Museum of Woman in the Arts
Tue, 4 August 09:15 am Participants: 15
 The permanent collection including work by Mary Cassatt, Camille Claudel, Georgia O'Keefe, etc. is housed in an elegant Renaissance Revival structure three blocks from the Convention Center. A docent received our group at the museum and provided detailed information.

The White House Participants: 50
5 August 07:15am
 Tours specially scheduled for the ISPRS AP Program took participants through the lower floors of the home of our Nation's first family. The White House provided our group with a knowledgeable guide. Many on this tour watched as President Bush waved to them and boarded his helicopter. This was a rare treat indeed!

The White House Participants: 50
Fri, 7 August 07:15am
 A second tour specially scheduled for us. Unfortunately, there were no sightings of the President on this tour.

Ford's Theatre Participants: 6
Tue, 11 August 08:45 am
 This is the small theatre in which President Lincoln was assassinated. The U.S. Park Service provided an interesting program and a visit to the museum on the premises.

MID-WEEKEND EXCURSIONS

EP-1 ANTIETAM, HARPER'S FERRY TOUR AND ISPRS CUP RACES Participants: 74
Sat, 8 August 1030-2300 $55 per person
 Participants took a pleasant drive through the rolling Maryland countryside for a tour of Antietam Battlefield -site of one of the best preserved U.S. Civil War battlefields. The restored historical town of Harper's Ferry was visited for lunch, browsing and exploration. Participants then reboarded busses for the "Charles Town Races" at Charles Town, West Virginia nestled in the Appalachian Mountains for dinner and an evening of thoroughbred racing. A special race and trophy to commemorate ISPRS was run.

The Intl. Society For Photogrammetry & Remote Sensing Purse
 Charles T. Duke, Jr., owner & trainer
 1 1/16 Miles - 1:48.3
 Charles Town Races

Colmas

Carol Bradshaw, up
 2nd Electro Dancer
 3rd Brown Out
 August 8, 1992

EP-2 WILLIAMSBURG, VIRGINIA Participants: 74
Sun, 9 August 0800-2000 $65 per person

The colonial Virginia town of Williamsburg, once the capital of the largest British colony in America was toured. Williamsburg has been restored as a living museum of buildings, crafts and shops of colonial times with people costumed in period clothing. Beautiful gardens and restored colonial government buildings were also seen.

EP-3 GREAT FALLS OF THE POTOMAC Participants: 87
Sun, 9 August 1300-1700 $23 per person

A relaxing day along the C & O Canal at the Great Falls of the Potomac, a haven for walkers, joggers, climbers, sun bathers and bikers. This peaceful day was designed for nature lovers.

TECHNICAL TOURS

Daily Technical Tours were conducted to 24 different government organizations, commercial firms and research facilities located in the Washington, DC area.

TT-1 US Geological Survey Participants: 42
Tue, 4 August 0830-1200

TT-2 Intergraph Corporation Participants: 43
Tue, 4 August 1300-1615

TT-3 NOAA/National Ocean Service Participants: 41
Wed, 5 August 0830-1200

TT-4 National Institute for Standards and Technology Participants: 42
Wed, 5 August 1300-1615

TT-5 Computer Sciences Corporation Participants: 44
Thu, 6 August 0830-1200

TT-6 Autometric, Incorporated Participants: 45
Thu, 6 August 1300-1615

TT-7 EOSAT Company Participants: 42
Fri, 7 August 0830-1200

TT-8 Michael Baker, Inc. Participants: 43
Fri, 7 August 1300-1615

TT-9 NASA/Goddard Space Flight Center Participants: 87
Mon, 10 August 0800-1200

TT-10 SPOT Image Corporation Participants: 44
Mon, 10 August 1300-1615

TT-11 US Geological Survey Participants: 46
Tue, 11 August 0830-1200

TT-12 NASA/Goddard Space Flight Center Participants: 87
Tue, 11 August 0800-1230

TT-13 Intergraph Corporation Participants: 44
Tue, 11 August 0830-1200

TT-14 NOAA/National Environmental Satellite, Data, and Information Service (NESDIS) Participants: 43
Tue, 11 August 0830-1200

TT-15, TT-16, TT-17, TT-18, TT-19
Downtown Washington, DC tours by shuttle bus:
Tue, 11 August 0900-1300 Participants

National Archives	53
Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum	167
Federal Bureau of Investigation	151
National Geographic Society	189
Library of Congress	110

TT-20 Hughes STX Corporation Participants: 44
Wed, 12 August 0830-1200

TT-21 US National Park Service (Washington, DC) Participants: 25
Wed, 12 August 1300-1615

TT-23 US Naval Observatory Participants: 45
Wed, 12 August 2030-2300

TT-24 US National Park Service (Harper's Ferry, WV) Participants: 30
Thu, 13 August 0830-1230

TT-25 Earth Satellite Corporation Participants: 44
Thu, 13 August 0830-1200

TT-26 Dewberry and Davis Participants: 25
Thu, 13 August 1300-1615

TT-27 NOAA/NESDIS Participants: 44
Fri, 14 August 0830-1200

